Universal Parenting Classes

information and dates for sharing

Family Hubs is pleased to offer a range of parenting courses for parents and carers. Professionals working with parents and carers can use the link or QR code to access the list and explain what the courses are and available course dates.

The courses offer support on a range of areas such as Antenatal, Postnatal, Baby, Child and Teen from the following parenting course suppliers. There are face to face and online options which you can learn about from the link. Parents can also self refer.

The courses are from Approachable Parenting, the Solihull Approach, Family Foundations and Empowering Parents Empowering Communities (EPEC delivered by Barnardo's). All the courses support and promote healthier relationships between parents or carers and their children.

Approachable Parenting

EMPOWERING PARENTS EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES

Changing childhoods. Changing lives.

Reducing Parental Conflict Training aims to give Practitioners an overview of tools for use when working with Parents who are experiencing Parental Conflict (not Domestic Abuse), the parents may be in a relationship, separating or separated.

Ravinder Kaur, Senior Learning and Development Officer from Birmingham Children's Trust – Reducing Parental Conflict, is kindly offered to provide 3hr bitesize Reducing parental Conflict Training to colleagues at 1 Avenue Road, Aston. There is a range of dates in April and May.

Please email Ravinder.Kaur@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk for dates and booking.

Healthier Families Support

Startwell - healthy start website and resources for children

Supporting parents and professionals to promote an active life, eating well and achieving more.

The early years of life is a vital time to set healthy foundations to prevent obesity later on in life. Our lifestyles are significantly influenced by early life experiences. Healthy lifestyle intervention at a young age can influence food choices, physical activity levels and leisure activity choices and these are likely to continue into adulthood.

Early childhood obesity can track into adulthood therefore efforts to prevent obesity should begin long before a child starts school – particularly as nearly a quarter of Reception year children in Birmingham are overweight or obese.

In response to this Birmingham developed Startwell, an evidence based NHS obesity prevention programme based on 8 key messages to help Early Years settings, parents and health professionals create a healthier environment for children and families.

Healthy Start - Free Vitamins for Pregnant Women and Children Under 4

Healthy Start is a means-tested nutritional supplementation programme providing food and vitamins for children under the age of four years, pregnant and breastfeeding women. The scheme offers eligible women and families £4.25 (£8.50 for a baby under 1 year) per week, in addition families also receive healthy start vitamins (HSV).

Unlike the national Healthy Start Vitamin scheme, Birmingham provides a 'universal' offer, wherein ANY pregnant woman OR parent/guardian with a child under 4 years of age can access vitamins without having to meet the additional benefits and tax credits criteria.

For information on HSV collection points visit Healthy Start vitamins | Healthy Start | Birmingham City Council

Find out how to apply at Healthy Start: how to apply.

Making it REAL - training opportunities for staff

Engaging parents in their children's early literacy development has been shown to improve children's outcomes and is a valuable intervention for narrowing the gap and increasing access to opportunities for all children.

Through discussions and practical activities, the Making it REAL (Raising Early Achievement in Literacy) programme helps parents and carers with ideas about how to support young children with books, early writing, songs and rhymes and how to make use of all the print around them in their home, in the street, and in the shops.

Barnardo's are offering a limited number of training places for Making it REAL to professionals in Early Years settings, PVI's, Early Help and the Voluntary Sector.

Use the QR code or email address to contact Barnardo's who are rolling out training for this programme makingitreal@barnardos.org.uk
